IST2. THE WORLD.

In the year 1872 General Grant's successor is to be chosen; the Forty-third Congress is to be chosen; the Forty-third Congress is to be cleeted. The people's votes, white and black, North and South, will thus decide the future destiny of the Republic, select its rulers, prescribe their course. How to influence the people's votes? By the newspaper—for it includes every other agency. It makes known events and facts—among all influences the chief. It assembles the vaster outside audiences which cannot gather to the State-house, the publy, or the stump. It is the constant interpreter of men's offsirs, and of error or truth is the daily seed. sower. Next November is our political harvest time. As we sow we shall reap.
